

VOTER GUIDE CHEAT SHEET

MARCH 5TH 2024 ELECTION

President of the United States

Recommendation: Biden is the choice in this outdated "Democratic" process....it's a Hot Azz Mess all around. Forgiving these student loans is a game changer. Expectations are low, but supporting a psychopath should never be in the cards.

United States Senator Full Time

Recommendation: Barbara Lee has been representing US well and should have been appointed to this seat when Senator Diane Feinstein passed away. No Disrespect to Laphonza Butler, but "poli-tricks" as usual.

United States Senator Partial

Recommendation: Barbara Lee has been and continues to be the voice of consciousness, and we need her in Washington, DC, more than ever. Former Senator Barbara Boxer's endorsement of someone else is a slap in Ms. Barbara's face.

United States Congressional District 6

Recommendation: Ami Bera.....we have been giving him the side eye. He is the face of going wherever the wind blows and a career politician; frankly, we deserve more and better.

United States Congressional District 7

Recommendation: Dave Mandel is committed to environmental protection and climate change initiatives. He believes in healthcare for all and will advocate for restructuring the healthcare sector to prioritize Public Health over profit. He is in favor of comprehensive gun control measures and police reform that would reduce gun violence and ensure community-based approaches to public safety - such as restorative justice. Mandel is a Jewish man who is standing up for Palestinian human rights, and longstanding incumbent Matsui, an internment camp survivor, is turning her back on 25,000 dead, including too many children. If October 7th was a tragedy -- and it is -- what has happened since is 25x worse. Gotta know when to hold and fold em, and it's time for some new leadership...No Disrespect!

VOTE

California Assembly District 6

Recommendations: Paula Villescaz and Sean Frame. This race has a crowded field, but two stand out for their fresh perspectives, innovative ideas, and commitment to the values the Sacramento Sister Circle holds.

Paula Villescaz has a plan for this seat and has proven through her track record at the California Health and Human Services Agency that she is committed to the health and well-being of Sacramentans. She is a solid pick for this position and could be a strong champion in the Capitol.

Sean Frame is a corporate-free candidate fighting for Medicare for All and thoughtful solutions to homelessness. He would be a welcomed state leader and partner to Black women and has a track record of being an unapologetic and outspoken advocate.

Assembly District 7

Recommendation: Porsche Middleton...has shown herself to be a viable public servant, and we wish her well as she continues to ascend in the political ranks.

Assembly District 11

Recommendation: Lori Wilson.....she is the real deal and has the track record to back it up "insert Juvenile song." Not only did she do a helluva job representing AD 11 in her first term. She also became Chair of the California Legislative Black Caucus and works to ensure more Black Women are elected to statewide office (currently, there are only 5 Black women in the whole CA state legislature). In addition to that, she has shared her journey with the public after being diagnosed with breast cancer. She continued to serve her constituents to the fullest while receiving treatment.

Judge of the Superior Court - Office No. 21

Recommendation: Noel Calvillo boasts several endorsements from local officials and community organizations alike, and we hope he will do good work as a judge.

State Proposition Prop 1:

Recommendation: NO! While Prop 1 sounds like a promising measure to improve behavioral health services and address homelessness, Mental health advocates oppose Prop 1, stating that it will divert funds from current mental health and treatment programs that are working to support people in need now.

City of Sacramento Mayor

Recommendation: Dr. Flojaune Cofer is the REAL DEAL, and she is what this city needs POINT. BLANK. PERIODT! She is the only candidate with a solution-community-based action plan and platform. A change is coming, and she has the receipts. All the men running against her have contributed to the issues this city has today. Why would anyone want to elect the same ole people and think different results will happen? Dr. Flo is OF & FOR the people and hands down one of the most brilliant leaders in this city, not to mention vibrant and got them "Megan Knees." She can be the life of the party, but when it's time to get down to business, you want her leadership, experience, and skills on your team!

Sacramento City Council

District 2

Recommendation: Veronica Smith has worked in this district for the last ten years, making a positive difference in the background despite the shenanigans and controversies. She was encouraged to run and endorsed by 5 of the six neighborhood associations and community members. There is a lot of discussion about this race and nine candidates running "insert eye roll" however, she has the relationships, trust, and commitment to do what's right for the people and continue to follow through as there is a significant opportunity, interest, and eyes on this district. It's time for a woman...the first Black Woman to take this seat.

District 4

Recommendation: Katie Valenzuela is a committed ally who stands her ground on political issues and leads with policy wisdom and moral courage. Despite the many lawsuits and detractors. She has been holding it down incredibly as a progressive leader and advocate through the BS*. As an early and strong supporter of Dr. Flo for Mayor, this is an excellent opportunity to get some amazing ish done.

District 6

Recommendation: KC Schuft for D6. She's the real deal, NOT Eric Guerra! He does NOT have the backs of his constituency. He voted for the tank. He opposed the tenant anti-harassment ordinance, and most recently, he introduced a daytime camping ban which would require people experiencing homelessness to move between 9 am and 9 pm so we don't have to see our policy fail during business hours (an expensive measure that doesn't house anyone). He's proven more willing to go along with the council majority than to vote his district or conscience, and we hate to see it. KC is an experienced community advocate, has organized the district neighbors to make fundamental changes, is thoughtful and values-driven, and will make a great addition to the Council.

District 8

Recommendation: Mai Vang is an ally and indeed, the heart and hustle of South Sacramento. She has stayed faithful to her campaign promises and has strong relationships with the community, the nonprofit/private sector, and the business community. Also, a Strong Supporter of Dr. Flo for Mayor and have long-standing relationships with local Women of Color Leaders.

Sacramento Board of Supervisors

District 3

Recommendation: Richard Francis Desmond Jr, endorsed by the Democratic Party of Sacramento County.

Sacramento Board of Supervisors

District 4

Recommendation: Braden Murphy promises to hold the county accountable for how they spend money and will pressure them to create strategic programs that will ensure effective and equitable change for all Sacramentans. Many democratic clubs endorsed Braden and have the SEIU union backing. Representation matters, and people with disabilities are even more underrepresented than Black Women in office and have needs that institutions often overlook.

Sacramento County Board of Education - Area 4:

Recommendation(s): Moe Sarama has a vision for his kids and all children and families to feel safe, heard and seen in our schools. As the only candidate in this race with children who graduated, enrolled, and one yet to be of school age, he understands the parents' perspective very well and will ensure that the parental voice is elevated. The Democratic Party of Sacramento County endorses him.

Vanessa Caigoy is driven by a deep commitment to parent choice and agency, accountability, and amplifying parent and student voices. She aims to ensure all students can access the high-quality public education they deserve.

Twin Rivers Unified School

District - Area 7

Recommendation: Sascha Vogt, endorsed by the Democratic Party of Sacramento County.

Yolo County Board of Supervisor
District 4

Recommendation: NJ Mvondo's life and work experiences reflect the diverse makeup of the Yolo community. As an advocate for Davis and Yolo County, she wants to instigate community-driven reforms and economic revitalization. One of the goals Mvondo hopes to achieve as a supervisor is disaster and emergency preparedness, the streamlining of services between UC Davis and Yolo County, and climate action.
